

Patricia Lovett-Reid - Biography

Patricia Lovett-Reid, Senior Vice President of TD Waterhouse Canada Inc., is one of Canada's leading and respected authorities on personal finance. She is a regular market commentator for Business News Network, Canada AM, CTV NEWSNET and CP24. Patricia is also the host of MoneyTalk, a national prime-time television program on personal finance, on the Business News Network.

A sought-after speaker and commentator on wealth management, she also co-authored the books Live Well Retire Well, Surprise! You're Wealthy: A Woman's Guide to Protecting Her Wealth, as well as, Take Charge Now: A Woman's Guide to Personal and Family Finance and the national best seller, Retirement Strategies for Women.

For her commitment in educating the public on personal finance matters, Patricia has been recognized with the 2007 Canada's MostPowerful Women: Top 100™ Award in the Trailblazers and Trendsetters category. In addition, she has taken the role of Trusted Wealth Advisor, with Indigo Chapters, which includes reviewing financial publications and making book recommendations.

Patricia holds the designation of Certified Financial Planner and a Honourary Fellow of the Canadian Securities Institute.