Elena Hoffstein is engaged in personal tax and estate planning, family business succession planning, wills and trusts, corporate reorganizations, marriage contracts and charities and not for profit law. Elena also represents clients in both contentious and non-contentious estate litigation matters including will challenges, mental capacity matters, applications for advice and direction of the court and passing of fiduciary accounts.

Elena has been ranked by L'EXPERT as one of the most frequently recommended Toronto private client and charity law practitioners and as one of the top 500 lawyers in Canada. Martindale-Hubbell has given her a rating of AV. In 2006, she received the Ontario Bar Association Award of Excellence in Trusts and Estates in recognition of her leadership and contribution to estates and trust law and in 2009 she received the Zenith Award in recognition of being one of the leading women lawyers in Canada in business law and the business of law.

Elena articulated with the firm in 1978-79 and returned in 1980 after being called to the Bar and became a partner in 1986. She is head of the Toronto office's Wealth Management and Charities practice group.
