

BIOS

- SUSAN HORVATH, YOLANDA BRONSTEIN AND BETH WEINTROP

Susan Horvath, Yolanda Bronstein and Beth Weintrop are raising funds to support the healthcare, research and teaching mission of Mount Sinai Hospital and the Samuel Lunenfeld Research Institute. The robust major gifts program at Mount Sinai is fully integrated with programs to support cultivation and stewardship, including events, donor relations, legacy giving and annual giving.

Susan is President of the Mount Sinai Hospital Foundation in Toronto. Susan's 19 years' fundraising experience has included being Vice President External at Robarts Research Institute, Director of Alumni Relations and Development at the University of Western Ontario, and Campaign Director for the United Way of London & Middlesex. Susan is an active volunteer, currently on the Board of the AFP Greater Toronto Chapter, and has been on the Boards of the Glen Cairn Community Resource Centre, Joseph's Healthcare London, Canadian Association of Gift Planners, and the Canadian Council for the Advancement of Education (Ontario and National Boards).

Yolanda is the Director of Legacy Giving at Mount Sinai Hospital Foundation of Toronto. She has been working in the non-profit sector for over 16 years and as a fundraiser for 10 years. Her career spans direct marketing to legacy giving and grassroots to national organizations. She has found her calling as a dedicated legacy giving ambassador. Yolanda is also co-chair of the CAGP GTA Roundtable Professional Advisors Committee.

Beth is a Development Officer of Legacy Giving at Mount Sinai Hospital Foundation. She has worked in the not-for-profit sector for over five years as a fundraiser and as an administrator in healthcare and the arts. She is a volunteer with the Canadian Association of Gift Planners.